

SASH Club is a place to ask questions, share opinions, support one another, and make friends -- all while working together to end sexual harassment and assault in our community.

Together, we can make an impact for positive change!

Join today!